'round town

with Betty Allen...

Yesterday was the opening of the fishing season and also straw hat day. A lot of people celebrated without a hat and thought wistfully how much they would like to go fishing.

The Walter Coads didn't wait for opening fishing day—they went on a three-day trip to Antioch over the Easter weekend where they did some cat fishing (perfectly legal at any time) and caught 60 catfish.

The California Congress of Parents and Teachers, meeting this week in San Francisco, deserves the admiration and respect of all of us. If sincerity and cooperation can solve some of the problems born of war's dislocation, this is the group that can do it, as is evidenced by its long and useful history.

Audience members exiting from the Szigeti concert last week were brought back down to earth with a jar when they noticed the work of a bill board "artist" who had been at work on a Szigeti poster. Originally made to read "He stands without a peer", the "p" in "peer" had been changed to a 'b".

Paul Becker, disguised as Superman, had a surprise encounter with one of his students Saturday evening on his way to a party—surprise, that is, on the part of the student, for the Campbell educator was dressed from tip to toe in red flannels — honest-to-gosh ones.

Heard a lot of interested comments on the display last weekend in Rachel's windows. It consisted of articles brought back to wives of Army and Navy husbands and was loaned for the occasion by Lowell Benson, Mrs. Janice Kammerer, Rincon Ave., and Mrs. George Galligan of Portland, Oregon. Rachel did a good job displaying a Sari—with the help of sketches brought home from India by Lowell Benson. The handwoven silk garment with real gold border has yards and yards of material in it and it's quite an art to drape it correctly. Other items in the collection were a handwoven Philippine jacket, a Chinese embroidered jacket, a blue mandarin robe, silver filigree jewelry, and other handsome handmade Oriental garments.

Mrs. Leslie Fairchild and Jeanne Gartner told this on themselves . . . When in San Francisco last week, they emerged from the St. Francis Hotel with the desire to go to I. Magnin's. They hailed a taxi and told the driver to take them there. The driver said he wasn't just sure of the location, drove them three blocks away, deposited them on the curb and waved his hand airily, 'It's around here somewhere." Jeanne and Mrs. Fairchild found they'd paid a quarter to ride three blocks and walk back two to the famous store. It had been right across the street all the time.

Mrs. V. Cardner received word from her son and daughter-in-law, Chief Petty Officer James Gardner and Mrs. Gardner, who are now at Kaneohe Bay in the Hawaiian Islands, that they had escaped unscathed from the recent tidal wave, but that the Navy had moved them into the hills immediately afterward. Gardner wrote that they had plenty of free fish and lobsters because the Navy trucks had been placed near the surf and when the giant wave washed back out it left the trucks full of fresh seafood.

Shooting Climaxes Sunday Family Quarrel

Held in the County Jail Monday was Austin Yeager, 36, who was charged with assault with a deadly weapon, after he assertedly shot his father-in-law, S. A. McClendon in the right leg with a rifle.

Coming as the climax of a family quarrel Sunday afternoon, Yeager says he shot "to scare" his father-in-law, later drove to Sheriff Walter S. Gaspar's office and gave himself up.

According to the story told deputies of Sheriff Walter S. Gaspar, McClendon appeared at the property, which he claims he owns at Box 18, Smith Ave., Campbell, and ordered Yeager, his wife, Josephine, and their three children off.

Both Yeager and his wife, an expectant mother, agreed to leave the property although they maintain McClendon's son, Jack, owns the land and gave them permission to live on it, officers said. McClendon followed the couple as they prepared to leave the premises, and kept nagging at them, they said.

Finally, according to Yeager, McClendon made a theatening move, and the son-in-law grabbed a .22 rifle, which he had been cleaning. Mrs. Yeager attempted to seize the rifle, and pleaded with her father to remain quiet, because her husband "meant business." McClendon, however, refused to do so, and Yeager pulled the gun from his wife's grip and shot McClendon in the leg, officers report. He is held under $1000 cash bail. Mrs. Yeager has signed a statement substantiating her husband's story.

Takes Trip To Denmark

J. P. Graff, father of Mrs. James Gleed, N. Harrison, sailed last Friday from San Francisco aboard the freighter, Uruguay, for Sweden and Denmark. The ship, with 25 passengers will sail through the Panama Canal to Antwerp, Belgium. From there he will go to Sweden and then to Denmark to visit his family, which he has not seen for 45 years.

He expects to arrive at the family home in time to take part in the celebration of his sister and brother-in-law's golden wedding anniversary late in May.

Anxious to take with him the things most needed, Graff talked to the Danish Consul in San Francisco and discussed the matter by letter with his family. They are most anxious for clothes and material, so the Campbell man took with him a large amount of yardage. His sister wants to make a black crepe dress but wrote that it would be necessary to bring the thread, needles, snaps, buttons and everything necessary for making the dress, so depleted are their stocks.

Mrs. Gleed says her father should feel at home on board ship for the freighter was carrying a large cargo of Santa Clara Valley prunes. Graff expects to return to Campbell in time for Christmas.

Footlighters Rehearsing "Fair Exchange"

Rehearsals are well under way for the production of "Fair Exchange" which will be given May 31 at the Campbell Union High school by the Footlighters under the sponsorship of the American Legion, Campbell Post.

Originally chosen, "The Male Animal" was discarded due to casting difficulties and in its place the group selected "Fair Exchange", a three-act comedy of Jewish family life.

Dean Chamberlin is directing the play and the cast is headed by Budd Levenberg as Isaac Goldberg with Vivian Becker as Sarah Goldberg, his wife. Other members of the Footlighters chosen for roles are Paul Becker, taking the part of the Goldbergs' son; Archie Keesling as Hans Schneider, the farmer; Ida Levenberg as Ella Schneider, his wife; Florence Horton as Rebecca Isenberg; Thais Ackerman as Mignon Belmont; Jack Murdock as Sigmund Bernstein; and Charles Keesling as Patrick O'Brien.

Williamsons Have Fire At Alder Point

Campbell friends of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Williamson who until two years ago, lived on Second Ave. here, will be sorry to learn that the Williamsons' house at Alder Point burned to the ground Monday night and all their possessions were destroyed.

Awakened by a crackle which they took to be the passing of an airplane, the Williamsons discovered the roof to be on fire. Present at the time were Mr. and Mrs. Williamson, their daughter-in-law, Mrs. Eldon Harris who immediately dashed outside with her small baby. Assisted by their neighbors, they tried to rescue some of their belongings but sparks from the burning house destroyed what they were able to remove.

Mrs. Harris' husband, Eldon Harris, A/C M. M., USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Harris of Campbell, is expected to be sent overseas from San Diego. Mrs. Harris, on Tuesday, was busy accumulating baby clothes to send immediately to her destitute grandchild.

Grammar School Class Visits Press

In conjunction with their work in school, the high fifth grade of Campbell Elementary school paid a visit to The Campbell Press to see the actual operations of a newspaper. The Intertype machine and the Whitlock press were demonstrated for the group. Accompanied by their teacher, Mrs. Frances Swane, they thoroughly inspected the shop. Beatrice Paz and Myra Jean Vanderark were spokesmen for the class. In appreciation of the visit, G. Martin Allen Jr., publisher, was presented with a "double" ice cream cone.

Midnight Show Saturday Evening

Another popular Campbell theater midnight show will be held this Saturday evening with the box office opening at 11:30. Featured will be a "thrills and chills" attraction entitled "Shark Woman". Co-billed will be an adventure picture of the high seas, "Wallaby Jim of the Islands", starring George Houston, Ruth Coleman and Mamo Clark.

Poppy Day To Be Observed In Campbell

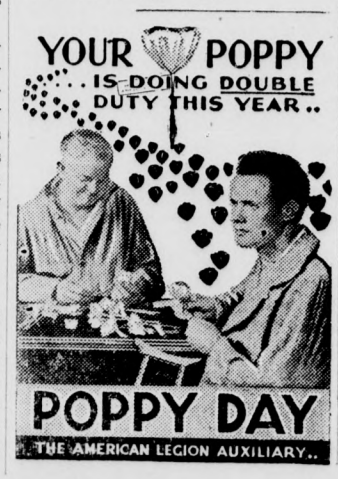
Campbell and throuhout the United States on Saturday, May 25, Gertrude Wood, president of the Campbell Unit of the American Legion Auxiliary, has announced.

Memorial poppies to be worn in honor of the dead of both World Wars will be distributed on the streets throughout the day by volunteer workers from the auxiliary and cooperating organizations. Contributions received in exchange for the flowers will be used in relief and rehabilitation work for disabled veterans, their families and the families of the dead.

Extensive preparations for Poppy Day are being made by the Legion Auxiliary Unit under the direction of Clara Fagalde, Poppy chairman. The volunteer workers are being organized into teams and assigned locations in the down town area. Residence and factory areas also will be covered to give everyone an opportunity to pay tribute to the war dead by wearing a memorial flower.

The poppies have been ordered from Palo Alto Veterans' Hospital, where they are being made by disabled veterans of both wars, working under direction of the Rehabilitation Department of the American Legion Auxiliary. They are crepe paper replicas of the European wild poppy which bloomed on the battlefields of France and Belgium in both wars and which has become a world-wide symbol of remembrance of America's battle dead. Poppies will be more generally worn this year than ever before, the chairman predicted.

"With peace restored and the men coming home," she said, "everyone will want to pay tribute to those who can never come back to us, by wearing a poppy in their honor on Poppy Day."



School Bond Proposal Discussed at Public Meeting

The school bond proposal to be voted upon on May 24 was discussed at a poorly attended public meeting held for this purpose in the grammar school auditorium last Friday evening. Immediately preceding the meeting, tours of inspection were conducted through the school for the purpose of acquainting those present with the over-crowded class room conditions which prevail.

William Henley, principal of the grammar school, explained in detail, with the use of several prepared graphs, what intended use was to be made of the money, if voted favorably. He pointed out that it would be more economical to erect two primary schools, one each in the northeastern portion of the present school district, and in the southwestern portion, inasmuch as these, along with the immediate vicinity of the present grammar school, were the population centers of the unified school district. He said that there are enough children from kindergarten through the sixth grade to support a seven or eight teacher school at the present time in the North end of the district, and a five or six teacher school in the South end of the district. He also stated that this would materially decrease the transportation problem, as the present busses carry a minimum of two full loads each morning and evening, and some busses even carry a third load. Henley further warned that if the bonds did not carry, it might be necessary to hold double classes during the day, having half the students come in the morning and half in the afternoon, thereby "sabotaging our educational program in the local schools."

Several questions were asked by an enthusiastic group. Ray Fish, a former member of the school board, took the negative side of the question and stated his reasons therefor, his principal objection being that there was still more land available at the present grammar school site. While some spirited discussions took place, the meeting was very orderly. Those taking part in the discussion were George Arledge, R. E. Schaefle, Neil Sellers, Carl Field, James Dent, Joe Gomes, Zola Hollinger, and others unidentified.

The meeting was arranged by George Arledge, representing the Tax Payers' Association of Campbell.

John M. Talia Awarded Bronze Star Medal

John M. Talia, son of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Talia, Santa Clara-Los Gatos Road, who served as a lieutenant in the Navy, has been awarded the bronze star medal for meritorious work as a commanding officer of a minesweeper during the Okinawa campaign.

By Lieutenant Talia's skillful maneuvering his ship escaped a determined attack by enemy suicide planes and succeeded in shooting down three of the attacking aircraft. He was further cited for "skillful seamanship, courage and perseverance as his ship efficiently and expeditiously swept enemy mines in the presence of constant danger from enemy suicide planes, shore batteries, and minefields."

A graduate of Campbell High school and San Jose State College, the former lieutenant is now living at home with his family. Before entering the service he worked in San Francisco.

Wedding bells will ring for the ex-Navy man in June when he will take as his bride Miss Betty Clottinger of San Jose.

Campbell Hi Spring Concert May 10

By Katharine Fuller

In previous years the big event of Campbell Hi has been the annual Spring Concert, but the expression "big event" will not cover the excellence of this year's anticipated performance.

Those participating in the concert will be members of the orchestra, band, and a capella choir, each under the baton of Frank Triena, well-known and able director of Campbell Hi's music department. Vocal soloist will be Miss Gloria Surian, coming young singer of Campbell Hi.

The featured number on the evening's program will be the first movement of the Mozart G minor Symphony performed by the orchestra. A Rossini overture and a novelty number will also be on the orchestra program.

May 10, the evening set for the Spring Concert, will prove to be well worth the price of a ticket.

The sale of tickets is under way, and anyone desiring to be present at this noteworthy performance should hasten to make their purchase. Money received from the sale of tickets will be used to purchase robes for the a capella choir.

Campbell Track Team Wins By 2 Points

By winning the relay Coach Herb Hudson's Campbell High varsity track squad barely nosed out the Santa Clara Panthers, 62-60, in a dual track meet held last Friday on the Panther's oval. Dual meet champion hopes were almost shattered however, for the Buc 125s as the power-packed Panther 125s overpowered the locals, 73 1/3-39 2/3, while the title-bound Buc 110s walked away with their meet, 50-36, for their third straight dual meet victory without defeat.

Several upsets were made in both the varsity and lightweight classes. The main upset in the varsity class was Wayne Buck's outjumping Bertacini of Santa Clara in the broad jump as Buck leaped 20 ft. 6 in., 3 inches better

Taxpayers Approve Rezoning

At Monday evening's Campbell Taxpayers' Association meeting the members voted as being in favor of rezoning railroad areas in Campbell for industry and decided to work in conjunction with the Chamber of Commerce to achieve this purpose. Members will attempt to have a large personal representation present at Planning Commission hearings.

The last Monday in every month has been decided upon as the official meeting time of the group, with special meetings called whenever the executive board considers it timely.

Planned as the program for the next meeting, which will be open to the public, is the presentation of the local political candidates running for the office of Constable and Justice of the Peace. It is also planned to have a speaker from the F. B. I. at the meeting to discuss the functioning of that department.

A membership committee was appointed by the chairman, Ray Gilpatrick.

WEEKS AND WEEKS

It has long been an American custom to set aside a special week for the observance of this or that. But we hardly realized to what extent this custom has grown until we looked over the list of "weeks" for the month of May.

There are no less than 18 of them. Here they are, and we don't guarantee that we have them all: Baby Week, Music Week, Fisherman's Week, Posture Week, Restaurant Week, Goodwill Week, Family Week, Golf Week, Cotton Parade Week, Raisin Week, Foreign Trade Week, Carbonated Beverage Week, Price Control Week, Poetry Week, Housing Week, Buddy Poppy Week, First Aid Week, and last, but by no means least, is Table Tennis Week.

Sort of makes you "week", doesn't it?

Letters to the Editor

Do We Really Need More Schools? What's It Going to Cost Us?

Dear Editor:

Let's answer the first question. If you were a family of six living in a one-room cabin, and at very little expense, which expense you could take care of by making small yearly payments over a long period, you could add five more rooms, you would most certainly do it in order to give your children the advantages they should have if they are to grow to be the kind of citizens you and I want.

Well, that's just the situation at present insofar as our grammar school is concerned, and the sad part of it is it's going to get worse if we don't get busy.

Right now, if not another house was built in the district, our present facilities would continue to be crowded to the extent that it is impossible to properly handle the students. But tentative plans are now made for the construction of a minimum of 1000 homes within the district just as soon as materials are available. Now let's suppose that only one-third of these materialize, and let's further suppose that there is an average of only one student per home, that means at least 333 more students. With our present accommodations overtaxed, what in the world are you going to do with them?

There is only one answer—more buildings. And when the bonds have been voted the School—Board hopes to work out plans for buildings that will be so constructed and so situated as to afford the greatest possible savings to the district.

Answering the question as to cost. Based on our present assessed valuation the contemplated bond issue of $325,000.00 means we will pay increased taxes of only about $3.50 per year on each $1000.00 of assessed valuation. As our assessed valuation increase and as the bonds are paid off, that amount will be reduced. Surely a very small cost for something so badly needed.

He was chosen from six candidates nominated on the basis of past participation in Junior Red Cross activities. Second place went to Dolores Drewes and Tommy H. Warren, both of Abraham Lincoln High school.

In addition to Junior Red Cross activities, the basis for selection was scholarship, leadership and character.

NO ARMY RACE PREJUDICE

A Negro, former master sergeant in the Army, Marion F. Gren, testified before General Doolittle's "caste system" board the other day, that there was little evidence of racial prejudices and discrimination in the Army. When General Doolittle inquired about this, Sergeant Green replied:

"Colored soldiers found some resentment against them when they first joined the Army, but this was quickly ironed out after a few months of training. In February, 1941, we had some fights and riots while I was stationed at Camp Livingstone, Louisiana. However, by the time we finished training, everybody was getting along fine. I encountered no racial bias whatever overseas."

The ex-G. I. also suggested that saluting of officers be optional when enlisted men are off duty and off the post, to which Lt. Gen. Troy Middleton, now an executive of Louisiana State University, countered: "Wouldn't optional saluting such as you propose tend to tear down discipline?"

"Not necessarily, general," replied Green. "If a man does something to merit respect, he will get that respect whether he is a civilian or an army officer."

POWER AND NYLON LOBBIES

Many congressmen will vote against dynamic Speaker Sam Rayburn in a secret committee session, but don't have the nerve to stand up and oppose him on the floor of the House. Very soon, however, Democrats who have fallen for the beguiling promises of the giant power lobby are going to face the latter test.

Sam Rayburn really has fire in his eye when he talks about the power lobby. And today that lobby ranks with the real estate buttonholers as one of the most potent on Capitol Hill, has even gone to the extent of dangling nylons before the wives of congressmen in order to win votes against the government's southwest power authority in Texas, Oklahoma, Arkansas and southern Missouri.

The question at issue is whether the government can construct its own electric lines to distribute electric power from the Denison dam on the Texas-Oklahoma border and the Norfolk, Ark., dam. Without such power lines, the government merely generates the power but can't sell it. The power lobby wants to prevent this sale.

So far, the power lobby's technique has been successful with the appropriations subcommittee, which knifed the construction of the distributing lines. Congressman Ben Jensen of Iowa, Henry Dworshak of Idaho, Robert Jones of Ohio, and W. F. Norrell of Arkansas were the gentlemen reported to have fallen for the wiles of the lobby.

However, when the bill comes out on the floor of Congress, Sam Rayburn, together with the dean of Congress, Adolph Sabath of Illinois, plans to stage a real battle.

Horizon Club Has District Meet

By Ann Enderton

The Horizon Club is relaxing after a terrific week at the Horizon Club district convention in San Jose. From the time they began to decorate Scofield Hall early Saturday morning to midnight Sunday, when they left the formal dance, the members were active participants in the convention.

The schedule began Saturday with an introductory meeting to introduce the groups from other cities and to get acquainted with the program planned. Each girl flaunted a bright yellow satin convention badge. Some very interesting career talks on science, homemaking, aviation and business were presented. Those listening were: Jeanne Currie, Jean Smith, Jean Jensen, Lois Smith, Marian Page, and Ann Enderton. Mrs. H. B. Enderton, the Campbell chapter advisor, served as chairman of the agenda. Talks were given also on family relationships, date data, and charm.

At the Y. W. C. A. in San Jose, the formal dinner was held. After the dinner, Hale Bros. put on a fashion show. Four Campbell members: Regina Smith, Jeanette Gomes, Patty Hoyt, and JoAnn Parr, were among the models. The high spot in the evening was the formal dance at Newman Hall. At first the dance seemd doomed to failure. (Reason: 100 girls, about 25 boys.) Miss Lois Young, Camp Fire leader, went to the USO and brought back a group of young sailors. After that—some fun!

Several out-of-town girls stayed at the homes of Mrs. Enderton, Mrs. Carl Field and Miss Helen Stray. After dinner at Mrs. Enderton's the girls went on Sunday to a final meeting at the Civic Auditorium. As the cleanup committes began their job, the girls returned to Campbell, tired, it is true; but looking forward to the convention next year.

Campbell Boys Receive Airplane

A Luscombe plane was given to Loren and Eunice Pierce by James W. Pierce and wife of 124 S. Milton Ave., Campbell, during Easter vacation.

The plane is a graduating gift to Loren, who will graduate June, 1946, from Campbell Hi, and Eunice, who will graduate June, 1947.

Mr. Pierce purchased the Luscombe from Mr. Sargent of Hayward Flying School, who gave the boys their training at the Sargent & Hill Flying School at Hillview Airport, San Jose.

Loren and Eunice qualified for their student flying license, April, 1945, and for their private pilot license, October and November, 1945.

Loren and Eunice are now 17 years old. They plan to enlist in the Army Air Corps upon completion of their school studies. The boys will have hanger facilities at the new airport south of Campbell as soon as it is completed.

Next Sugar Stamp Eligible on May 1

Spare stamp 49 in family ration books is now good for five pounds of sugar, beginning May 1, 1946, and will expire August 31, 1946, the Office of Price Administration announced today. Sugar stamp 39, the last stamp specifically labeled "sugar", expired for consumer use on April 30, 1946.

Based upon the April 23, 1946, report of the combined food board on sugar supply, OPA expects the same consumer ration of five pounds of sugar for each four months can be maintained. If the present ration rate is maintained, the next spare stamp for regular consumer purchase of sugar will be validated Sept. 1, 1946, OPA said.

Student Nurses Needed

National Hospital Day is annually set for May the 12th, the birthday of the founder of modern nursing. The nation pays tribute not only to Florence Nightingale on this day, but also to her successors, the nurses in our communities.

Throughout the war years, while thousands of graduate nurses cared for our men in every corner of the world, the student nurses carried 80 per cent of the nursing load in hospitals with schools. Their magnificent response to the plea for enrollment of student nurses averted a serious crisis in our civilian institutions, according to Dr. Thomas Parran, Surgeon General of the United States Public Health Service.

Although some nurses have returned from military service, a recent survey by the American Hospital Association showed the present need for nurses' to be as desperate as during the last few years. Many married nurses who put on uniform and cap again during the war are now devoting their time to their homes and families. Those helpful Red Cross Nurse Aides have largely disappeared. Doctors who did without nurse assistants during the war want them back. The same is true of the airlines. Public health services need three times their present number, and in the country as a whole, twice as many as are now active would be required to properly nurse our people. Civilian hospitals and the university medical centers are planning extensive building programs which will still further increase the number of available positions. Above all, the veterans must be cared for, many of them for long years to come, with the gratitude and skill of our finest nurses.

The Student Recruitment Committee of the California League of Nursing Education is striving to help meet this present shortage and also prepare sufficient nurses to satisfy these increasing demands for the future. There will be no unemployment for good nurses.

Young women, 18 years or older, who have completed high school with a year's course in chemistry, may begin to prepare now for these varied and interesting positions open to graduate nurses. Lists of California Schools of Nursing may be secured from the office of the Board of Nurse Examiners at either Sacramento 11, 515 Van Ness Avenue, San Francisco; or Room 907 State Building, Los Angeles 13.

Among the student nurses learning as they work is Mary Bridges of Campbell, who is training at the Franklin Hospital School of Nursing in San Francisco.

Lecture at County Hospital

"The Juvenile Problem in America and Europe" was the topic of the lecture given by William H. Young, candidate for sheriff of Santa Clara County, as a guest instructor to the junior and senior classes of the Santa Clara County Hospital Nurses School. The lecture was given as part of the regular training the student nurses receive in the field of social problems.

Young spoke of the need for a type of program which will eliminate the cause of juvenile delinquency instead of waiting for the youth to take his or her first step toward becoming a delinquent.

The lecture was attended also by many members of the hospital's regular staff.

This is a battle of principles!

REPUBLICANS AND DEMOCRATS

UNITE!

In the past, there have been many bitter fights between Republicans and Democrats. But all of these political struggles have been based upon the principles of Americanism.

Today, the picture has changed. Congressman Jack Anderson is being opposed by a candidate who is vigorously supported by the C.I.O. Political Action Committee. A small, selfish group with a lust for power is using a Democrat to attempt to gain control of this district for its own undemocratic purposes.

This is still America—a free land. But it will only remain free if the unAmerican methods of the Political Action Committee are convincingly squelched.

This is not a party fight. Anderson has received the Democratic nomination many times. It is one of principles. And a vote for Congressman Jack Anderson will safeguard the American way!

Where To Go Over May 4-5

With the trout season opening May 1, this week-end will see many an angler perched on a bank waiting for the first nibble. This type of fellow needs oniy his bait and tackle, and you'll see him from May 1 on, everywhere where there's a suspicion of a trout. For the more gregarious person, California offers for the week-end of May 4-5 a variety of entertainment including rodeos, fairs, flower shows, and barbecues, and the California Chamber of Commerce suggests that you dust off the family car, fill your gas tank, and go.

Grass Valley. Schools, stores, and places of busines in Grass Valley will all be closed by O-Fish-All proclamation on the first day of May, and "each and every angler is thereby directed to go forth upon the streams and lakes and take therefrom the awaiting trout."

Chico: Riding, roping, and racing—to say nothing of a parade and between—events performance of the inevitable clowns who are a part of every rodeo—are all on the slate for May 5 at the Chico Rodeo.

Boyes Hot Springs, Sonoma: Sonoma's second annual Spring Horse Show will be presented Sunday afternoon under the sponsorship of the Valley of the Moon Riding Club. Various cash prizes and trophies will be awarded to winners of the different classes, which will include jumpers, trail horses, fine harness, three-gaited, hackney ponies, palominos, and children's Western.

Oakland: El Dorado is the theme of Oakland's 14th Annual California Spring Garden Show, where authentic old relics will be used against a background of realistic moss-covered cliffs, 40-ft. redwoods, spruce and silver firs. The central picture in this display which tells the story of early California life will be the discovery of gold at Sutter's Mill. Great quantities of spagnum moss brought from Eureka actually grows on the man-made cliffs, construction of which was begun a month ago. Individual gardeners, nurseries, and clubs all over the State will participate in the show. Outstanding among the exhibits will be tulips from Holland, the first flown here since the war. The show will be open from 9 a. m. to 10 p. m. daily from Tuesday through Sunday.

Los Banos: A rollicking good time is in store for those who attend the five-day celebration, "It's May Day in Los Banos," beginning on May 1, and reaching a climax on Sunday with the Grand Civic, Western Historical, and Floral Parade at 10:30 followed by the picnic and barbecue. Combined with this celebration is the first west side Merced County Spring Fair and Livestock Show.

Escalon: Governor Earl Warren will be on hand Sunday to dedicate the recently completed $20,000 track at Escalon. Thousands of spectators will gather round the new track both May 4 and 5 to watch the performances of trick riders, bronc riding, bull-dogging, pony express races, etc., and to witness the crowning of the rodeo queen.

Lodi: San Joaquin County Fair and Horse Show will be held on Sunday at the fair grounds in Lodi. Livestock, garden products, and exhibits of household arts will be among the attractions.

San Luis Obispo: At the California Polytechnic School in San Luis Obispo, a Country Fair on a College Campus, is scheduled for May 4 and 5. This event, known at Poly Royal, features the agricultural projects of the students at the college.

Hemet: Two repeat performances of the Ramona Pageant will be given this weekend at the Ramona Bowl in Hemet. This colorful show, depicting the dramatic, romantic life of Ramona, is based on the popular novel by Helen Hunt Jackson. Matinees will be given May 4 and 5, and final performances on May 11 and 12.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hoelling have returned from their wedding trip which included stops at Carmel and other vacation spots along the coast.

Legion Auxiliary Activities

The regular meeting of the Campbell American Legion Auxiliary, No. 596, was held Wednesday evening, April 24, with Gertrude Wood presiding. Much correspondence was read and voted upon. Members were asked to attend the 13th District meteting, at Palo Alto, May 12. Helen Noonkester was appointed to act as subscription chairman for the National Auxiliary magazine. Members, who wish to subscribe to the paper, are asked to bring the required money to the next meeting. The unit voted to purchase a year's subscription for the Campbell library.

Evabelle Fuller gave a very interesting report of the party held by the Past President's Unit, for the girls at the Palo Alto Hospital. Games and an Easter egg hunt were enjoyed and refreshments, in the Easter motif, were served. A delightful musical program was given by the patients. The visitors inspected the large sun-porch, the furniture of which was given by the unit. The girls receive loving care there, and many have fully recovered their health; others are on the road to recovery. The visitors also paid a visit to the veterans, who are making the poppies which are to be sold in the Poppy drive in May.

The next meeting, May 8, will be "Poppy Night" and the members will assist the juniors in preparing the boxes for the Poppy sale.

Ellen Lanphear, chairman of the Mother's Day tea, to be held May 11, in the Country Woman's Club room, reported that her committee was at work and a delightful afternoon is promised to all who attend.

Restrictions Lifted For Small Boats

Small boat operation around San Francisco Bay moved nearer to peacetime status with announcement today of removal of restrictions against night sailing by private vessels and reopening of certain heretofore restricted areas inside and outside the Golden Gate.

Lifting of restrictions follows a campaign by the California State Chamber of Commerce, in behalf of the 17,000 small vessels owned by Bay area commercial fishermen and yachting and power boat enthusiasts. During the campaign, Congressman George P. Miller—representing Congressmen Lea, Tolan, Havenner, Welch, Johnson and Anderson—wrote the Secretary of the Navy and Secretary of War, requesting removal of wartime navigation and fishing restrictions in areas no longer necessary to national defense.

with Susie Shopper

It's a thrill to go into Clark's newly renovated and enlarged store. There's been quite a crowd looking at the new displays and one of the most popular with the women is the nail polish section. Big news in that department is the arrival of Revlon's new color, Bachelor Carnation. When Revlon produces a new one it's bound to be exciting and this is no exception. It's a natural for summer wear and up to Revlon's high standards. It comes in an attractive box with lipstick to match and of course polish remover. Many a woman will particularly welcome the lipstick for it heralds back the metal container. And is that good news!

Every one loves to look at baby clothes, and the Dresser Drawer, newest addition to Campbell's distinctive shops, has a grand selection of delectable garments for the very youngest set and a lot of useful accessories too. It seems that the new plastic materials have already invaded the baby's domain and are contributing both aesthetically and practically. There's a yummy set of matched diaper bag, laundry bag, bib and, the climax!—a combined pillow and bottle holder. They're all made of soft quilted "wonder" plastic in either blue or pink. Waterproof and washable, of course.

Have you seen "Rachel's" new jewelry? It's well worth a special trip to see—some unusual pieces in silver and some in Mexican silver which include clips, necklaces and earrings. They range in design from seahorses, cupids and birds to feathers and flowers. There's a love of a Pegasus and two beautiful little seahorse earrings. There's also some handwrought copper jewelry in exotic designs — turtles, butterflies and such. Any one of them is made to order for that new spring suit.

I can never go in the Campbell Hardware Store without coveting one of those gay Mexican chairs. Perhaps it's because they have daisies on them and remind me of a very dear friend who loved daisies. She had daisies in her garden, daisies on her table-linen, on the bathroom walls, pictures of daisies, dresses of daisy print and daisy jewelry. Whether you are addicted to daisies or not you'd find these chairs wonderful for that "extra" piece or for use in the patio.

The Campbell Pharmacy is happy over having its old friends Roger and Gallett back after a long absence. They've been unobtainable for some time but are out now with two new ones—"Blue Carnation" and "Night of Delight". The names they dream up for these things! But in spite of the names both of them have that extra special Roger and Gallet touch and both sets include bath powder, talcum, cologne, perfume, sachet and toilet soap. By the way, you couldnt' do better for Mother's Day.

On entering The What Not, the floral arrangements on the big center table, are always a surprise and a delight. Mrs. Monica Parr usually does them and they always display originality of combinations and great skill. For the person looking for an inexpensive but original gift there's a new line called American Handi books. There's a birthday book, a shopping list, address book, autograph book and notebook. They are designed from Early American quilt patterns, samplers and floral prints and their quaint charm is delightful. Back on the market are some new varieties of colorful paper napkins with coasters and matches to match (no pun intended). Some of the napkins, scalloped too, come in square cellophane boxes with gay ribbon bows. The bows, incidentally, are fastened to the top inside of the box so that, after the napkins have gone the way of all napkins, the container may be used for other purposes.

CONGRESSMAN
says . . . "I have led the fight in Washington for more and better HOUSING"
During the past two years I have continuously fought for more and better housing. During 1945, our efforts were largely responsible for the granting of priorities to build approximately 3000 additional homes in this district. I have always supported every housing measure in Congress and intend to vigorously continue this fight.
JACK ANDERSON

RE-ELECT JACK ANDERSON

Anderson Speaks At San Mateo

Charging that the CIO Political Action committee "demands abject compliance from every public official they elect," Congressman Jack Z. Anderson opening his drive for re-election at a candidates' dinner in San Mateo, blasted what he termed "the attempt by this dangerous minority to buy seats in Congress."

"I have a few short days before returning to Washington in which to fight the vicious rumors circulated by the PAC in regard to my attitude toward the OPA, the Patman Housing Bill, and Extension of the Draft," Anderson said.

"May I state unequivocally that I am for price control because I believe in it. There is an attempt to mislead the voters into fearing that the OPA is endangered. The truth is, Congress has acted to make price control work; to do away with the best black markets. And to set the record straight, rent controls remain the same."

In citing his record on the Patman Housing Bill, Anderson stated: "I voted for the Patman Housing Bill, and this bill as it passed the House gives the veterans of World War II super priorities in obtaining building materials. I did vote against the six hundred million dollar blank check subsidy that Housing Director Wyatt asked for. Subsidies will not release manufacturers' materials. And Wyatt himself could not tell the House how he intended to spend the six hundred million."

Reviewing the extension of the draft, Anderson said he voted to extend Selective Service until Feb. 15, 1947, but voted against the five months induction holiday, because "it is unfair to those men in the armed forces who served overseas. Since we are extending the draft, replacements must be assured for these men."

Legion Membership Drive Over 125

Last week's American Legion meeting added four new members, to bring the membership to more than 125 for the year. Bill Weeks was responsible for the newest additions and is still high man for the drive.

Louie Fortaine announced that the Footlighters were getting ready for their Legion-sponsored play, at the same time reporting that the "Male Animal" cast could not be filled satisfactorily and a new vehicle was selected. A definite date for local presentation will be announced shortly, with tickets on sale by next meeting date.

Under Boy Scout reports, Bill Weeks stated that he and several commissioners had taken 18 boys to Big Basin for a camping out trip, with a good time enjoyed by all.

A 13th district meeting of legionaires will be held in Palo Alto May 12.

The second birthday party will be held May 22, with a potluck dinner and autixiliary ladies invited.

The next meeting, May 8, will be a stag affair and initiation of recently enrolled candidates.

Election of officers for the coming year will be held in June.

Campbell Track Team Wins

than Bertacini's mark of 20 ft. 3 in. Buck also copped the high jump with a 5 ft. 5 in. effort.

Loren Pierce was the only other double winner for the Buc varsity as he again annexed both hurdle races, winning the 120 H. H. in 17.8 and taking the 200 lows in 26.0.

Tommy (Streak) Blackmun almost was a double winner as he took the 100 yd. dash in 10.7, but was nosed out by Neves of Santa Clara in the 220.

Dick Gouley and Rich Villafuerte came through with their usual good performances with Gouley taking the 440 in the good time of 54.9 and "Frutie" taking the half mile also with a good time of 2.11.

Campbell had two other winners in Pat Porter winning the mile and Jack Magginetti pulling a surprise by tying for first in the pole vault.

The relay team composed of Wilson, Villafuerte, Gouley, and Blackmun came through to win and pull the meet out of the fire in the final event.

Santa Clara's 125s surprised the Bucs by taking the meet so easily. Dick Cotta pulled a mild upset by defeating Oliver in the 100 yd, dash with a speedy 10.3 timing. Oliver, however, also pulled a surprise by defeating Cotta in the discus by throwing the platter 123 ft., 3 ft. better than Cotta's best effort for the day. Cotta came back to win the shot put.

Don Ervin soared over the pole vault at an even 10 ft. to easily win that event.

Elmer Sweeney again won the half mile in 2:12, and Elden Sylva took the 440 for the Bucs, and Robertson and Williamson tied for first in the high jump at 5 ft. 3 in. for Campbell's only other wins.

The Campbell midgets easily took their meet as Tashiro took two firsts and one second.

New Idea Proposed for Rte. 5

A new suggestion for Route 5 has been made to the City Council of San Jose by Attorney Arthur Johnson which would make the junction of San Jose-Los Gatos Road and Route 5 at the San Tomas Road intersection. His proposed route brings the highway along this route:

At a point just beyond Milpitas, on the east side of the Western Pacific tracks, the old Oakland highway and Coyote River, the road would go in almost a straight line to a McKee Road junction with the Bayshore Highway.

It would then wind through the Santa Clara St. underpass to East William St., then circle around the southeast corner of San Jose to Alma St., or a little beyond.

From this point it would connect with Almaden Road and extend to Curtner Ave. to eventually connect with the San Jose-Los Gatos Road at the San Tomas Road intersection, with a small connecting section from Almaden Road to the Monterey Highway at Stone Ave., serving traffic from the south to the area beyond Los Gatos.

Johnson says this route would provide an almost straight north and south main highway from Oakland to Los Angeles and a curve around San Jose for the Oakland to Santa Cruz Highway.

Army Chaplain Wishes To Form Baptist Church Here

Chaplain Foy King, now on terminal leave, is interested in organizing a Baptist church in Campbell. Chaplain King and his wife live on Ashler Ave. in Los Gatos and plan on making their home in the valley.

Before entering the service, he served as Baptist minister at the Baptist church in Junction, Texas. The former pastor has served as transport chaplain since July 19, 1942, making 16 round trips in the Pacific theater.

Anyone interested in forming a Baptist group here may call Chaplain King at Los Gatos 889R, or the Rev. Fred Barnes, Col. 6666.

"Love Letters" playing this week at the Campbell Theater, is Hal Wallis' latest production which gets off to a quiet start, then increases in pace and tension to reach a highly emotional climax. The unusual story is revealed slowly, allowing audience curiosity plenty of time to develop and increase to fever-pitch. The restrained performances of Jennifer Jones and James Cotten contribute in large part to the effectiveness of this device.

There's war in the background, but so far in the background that the picture cannot rightly be classed as a war film. At the story's start, Cotten is a British Army officer who undertakes, on behalf of his buddy, to write love letters to a girl he has never seen. He falls in love with the stranger, and rightly assumes that she loves him, the author of the letters, and not the man who signed them. It is with shock, and a premonition of disaster, that he learns she has married his friend.

More than a year later, learning of his friend's death, and still haunted by the memory of the girl he has never met, he sets out to find her. By a baffling combination of circumstances he can learn nothing; neither the girl's whereabouts, nor the cause of his friend's death. He does, however, meet one woman who appears to hold the clue to the mystery. Eventually he discovers, through her, that his friend's death was murder; that the young wife was accused and convicted of the crime although her memory had been wiped out by shock, so that she was unable to remember the circumstance of the killing, or her marriage, or any of the events of her past life.

Cotten, therefore, is confronted with a difficult problem. If he marries the girl, as his heart prompts him to do, she may later recover her memory and, learning that he wrote the letters which led to her first husband's death, and her own suffering, turn against him in hatred. How he faces this problem, and succeeds in solving it, constitutes the absorbing climax of Ayn Rand's screenplay, basd on the novel by Chris Massie.

From an excellent cast of supporting players, Ann Richards and Gladys Cooper must be singled out for special mention. William Dieterle's skillful direction achieves the most in suspense.

Broadway Success Plays in San Jose

Marion Lorne, distinguished American actress, who plays the role of Veta Louise Simmons in the Brock Pemberton production of Mary Chase's comedy, "Harvey", which has one performance in San Jose on Saturday evening, May 11, returned from London to take the role of the bemused, distracted sister of Elwood P. Dowd, the role which stars Joe E. Brown.

Wife of the playwright, the late Walter Hackett, Marion Lorne has played opposite most of the notable English writers, from the son of Sir Henry Irving to present day stars. Her fluttery of confusion adds greatly to the general hilarity of family life with a man who insists he travels around with an invisible six foot one and one-half inch white rabbit.

Following "Harvey", with Joe E. Brown on May 11, the famous Mae West comes in person to the San Jose stage on May 23, and "The Voice of the Turtle" on June 17.

Joe E. Brown and Toni Favor in the Pulitzer prize play, "Harvey".

"Join the Navy, and Your Wife Sees the World"

Approximately 150 Navy wives and children sailed from San Francisco this week on the USS Hermitage to join naval personnel stationed in Guam, Tinian, Saipan and Pelelieu. Several hundred dependents have already been sent to Alaska, the Aleutians, Hawaii, Guam, the Carolines, Marshalls, Palaus, Marianas, Samoa and Midway. In addition, hundreds of applications are being processed not only for these areas but for Okinawa, Japan, and the Philippines, which opened May 1. On the other side of the world, Navy families may now go to North Africa, Argentina, Newfoundland, Greenland, England, Europe, Caribbean area islands, South America, Haiti and the Dominican Republic and Mexico.
